

Press-Gazette photo by John A. Robb

Drive-through shopping: Michael Obrovac helps customer Pam Passamoni with her shopping as Barbara Radue, right, rings up the purchases on a cash register at the Zippity-Do Drive Thru store at 1720 Lime Kiln Road. Customers drive through the store and the grocery and beverage items are brought to their cars by store employees. Obrovac is the store manager and Radue is the owner.

Quick mart to open at Lime Kiln Road

Press-Gazette

A quick stop grocery and beverage store will open in mid-June at 1720 Lime Kiln Road.

The store, Zippity-Do Drive Thru Inc., will be owned by Barbara Radue and managed by Michael Obrovac. It will employ six people with hours from 6 a.m. to midnight daily.

The building will have 3,800 square feet of space.

The store is designed to be a drive-through convenience mart where customers will drive their car into the building and order their goods from a clerk, who will fill and deliver the order to the car.

Products to be carried at the store include beverages, dairy, breakfast, delicatessen and luncheon, snack and party and some non-food items such as cigarettes, health and beauty aids, laundry detergents and cleaning supplies.